

DESERT BRUSH STROKES

WALTKE
FINE ART

MARCH 2022

new art...galleries...work in process:

Greetings and welcome back to Waltke Art!

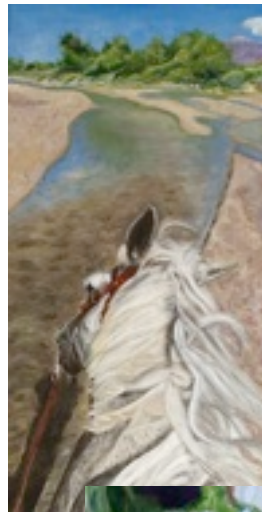

Thank You! to those of you able to attend the recent Small Works exhibit at Untitled Gallery in the old Steinfeld Warehouse arts area. Great turnout! (Tight Security top right)

Detoured For Nesting -roadrunner in prickly pear (top center) is now up at Ironwood Gallery out at AZ Sonora Desert Museum in Artists For Conservation's annual touring show, up through Mar. 27. I'll be there the 25th, 4-6. Look forward to seeing you. Call the gallery before you go. 520-883-3024 websites:

www.lynnwaltkeart.com

www.artistsforconservation

•Art work shown at center left is The View From Annie, a white flea-bitten horse belonging to an old friend, along the Tanque Verde wash.

•Small Bird Big Attitude top left is a large 40x30 painting of a small burrowing owl. Check its beak for telltale signs of dirt from the latest excavation.

•Currently in process is another large piece- Rockhoppers heading for their nests on Tristan Da Cunha, remote islands in the south Atlantic Ocean. Another endangered species.

Click here to unsubscribe

... wishing you the best from the Sonoran Desert.

